

Jubilee Camp Site Safety Policy

The Management Committee is obliged to follow the policies of the Scout Association to endeavour to ensure that all young people and adults using the site do so safely and with the minimum of risk. Within this framework,

The Jubilee Camp Site Management Committee is responsible for ensuring:

- the provision and maintenance of the buildings, equipment and facilities on the site which are fit for purpose and are as safe as reasonably practicable for staff and visitors alike.
- that appropriate arrangements are made to ensure safety and the absence of risks in connection with the use, transport, storage and handling of all equipment and substances, particularly those which are inherently or potentially dangerous, including the maintenance and provision of training and instruction for the use of individual equipments

For visitors to the site, the Responsible Person is, so far as reasonably practicable, to ensure that:

- All activities are conducted in a safe manner without risk to the participants
- The provision and use of equipment which is safe and has been properly maintained
- Information, instruction, training and supervision is provided with the object of ensuring the health and safety of all those involved
- Appropriate arrangements are made to ensure safety and the absence of risks in connection with the use, transport, storage and handling of all equipment and substances, particularly those which are inherently or potentially dangerous
- Adequate first aid equipment and facilities are provided
